- Report any suspicious activities in your area to the Police Department of City Hall.

"MAYOR'S CORNER"

Let 'Em Crow! What a perfect theme to the 66th annual Rogue River National Rooster Crowing Contest! A big thank you to former Mayor Pam for coming up with this year's catch phrase for Rogue River's biggest event.

Please join me for a weekend of good times, kicking off Friday night at the community center for dinner. Don't miss out on the wonderful parade on Saturday filled with many fun floats and entries. And, of course, the Rooster Crow and Human Crow in the afternoon. Sunday the Rooster Crow Committee is bringing back the car show and the Cal-Ore River Racers will provide an exciting hydroplane race starting at Fleming Park.

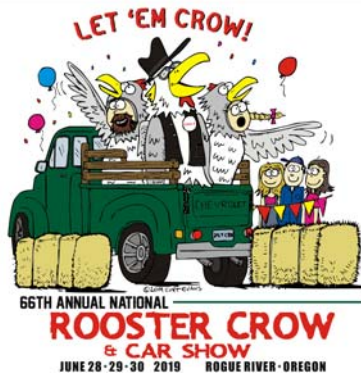

Besides The Crow, June is a big month for our city. Members of city staff and myself will be going to Salem to pitch our request for grant money to the State Parks and Rec Board to build our vision of the new Rooster Park. Stay tuned, as we'll update you on how this important meeting plays out.

I want to thank the VFW for a noble Memorial Day ceremony at the Woodville Cemetery. Our Local Post 4116 always does an admirable job honoring those who have served our country.

And, finally, I'd like to congratulate all the graduating classes of 2019 in our area! Whatever your future plans might be, graduating is no small accomplishment, and you should all be very proud.

Let's have a wonderful summer, Rogue River!

And, 'Let 'Em Crow!' Mayor Ryan
